

Ingredients for composting.

Good for compost	Not good to compost
<input type="checkbox"/> Grass	<input type="checkbox"/> Sick plants or weeded
<input type="checkbox"/> Vegetables' leaves	<input type="checkbox"/> Meats or bone
<input type="checkbox"/> Vegetables' roots	<input type="checkbox"/> Litters or excrements
<input type="checkbox"/> Vegetables leftovers (raw or cooked)	<input type="checkbox"/> Oil or lubricates (new or of cooking)
<input type="checkbox"/> Fruit leftovers (skin, heart,...)	<input type="checkbox"/> Bread
<input type="checkbox"/> Vegetables/fruits too ripe to be eaten	<input type="checkbox"/> Cheese, milk, dairy products
<input type="checkbox"/> Weeds (without seed)	<input type="checkbox"/> Fish
<input type="checkbox"/> Dry leaves	<input type="checkbox"/> Nut (attracts the squirrels)
<input type="checkbox"/> Hay	<input type="checkbox"/> Colored ink newspaper (flyers)
<input type="checkbox"/> Sawdust	<input type="checkbox"/> Manure
<input type="checkbox"/> Black ink newspaper	<input type="checkbox"/> Piece of wood
<input type="checkbox"/> Egg shells (not eggs)	<input type="checkbox"/> Painting
<input type="checkbox"/> Coffee bean (and paper filters)	<input type="checkbox"/> Wrapping paper
<input type="checkbox"/> Tea bags
<input type="checkbox"/> Hair (human and animal)
<input type="checkbox"/> Feathers	